Under penalty of perjury, the permittee hereby affirms the following:

- The vessel is maintained in a neat and safe condition. No garbage/junk is allowed to be visible on the vessel.
- The vessel is equipped with operable and functioning sanitation equipment, including an interior holding tank of sufficient capacity or composting toilet with appropriate plans for disposal of human waste. Dumping of sewage (human or otherwise) is strictly prohibited.
- The vessel is in seaworthy condition, floats at all stages of the tide, and is capable of navigation.
- The vessel is currently registered with the DMV or is a USCG documented vessel.
- The vessel has an adequately sized, fully charged and operable marine type fire extinguisher aboard.
- The vessel's bilges are free from excessive accumulations of fuel, oil, coolant or other fluids, and the pumping equipment is operational.
- The vessel has adequate and operable ground tackle.
- The vessel has operational navigation lights which are capable of display between sunset and sunrise and during times of restricted visibility.
- The vessel has a whistle, bell or other means of making an efficient sound signal
- The vessel has personal floatation devices aboard for each occupant appropriate to age, size and weight of registered occupants.

Conditions of Anchoring Permit:

1. Emergency inspections of unattended vessels will be conducted whenever a vessel appears to be in distress or is likely to create distress or potential distress to other vessels, real property and/or the environment. Unattended vessels in distress may be relocated to a more secure location/setting by the harbormaster.
2. Only vessels used for recreational purposes will be allowed to temporarily anchor. No commercial vessels shall be allowed to anchor except those that are passing through.
3. No major repairs, refinishing, or re-fitting of vessels will be allowed in the anchorage. Minor repairs or light maintenance is allowed if that maintenance does not add pollution or put wastes or contaminates into Richardson's Bay, the air, and does not disturb the tranquility of any person or animal. All sanding and scraping with power tools shall have an appropriate vacuum attachment power tool. Any and all hand-work that produces dust or scrapings shall be immediately accompanied by a vacuum cleaner.

4. No refuse, garbage or solid waste of any kind shall be disposed of or thrown overboard into Richardson's Bay. Any discharges of pollutants into bay waters shall be reported immediately to the harbormaster and US Coast Guard.
5. The feeding, watering or molesting of wildlife and/or aquatic life (except for lawful fishing) is prohibited.
6. The captain and crew of an anchored vessel shall be considerate of others and keep noise to a minimum.
7. Rafting of vessels shall be limited to one dinghy (up to 16 feet in length) in addition to the main vessel. Floats and floating platforms are prohibited.
8. Vessels shall not be left unattended. Unattended vessels will be identified as abandoned and treated as such.
9. Any sunken vessel must be removed from the anchorage immediately. If the vessel is not removed immediately, it will be removed by the RBRA or its designee at the owner's expense.
10. The occupants of the vessel are subject to the same ordinances as any other citizen regarding public nuisance issues. If a violation occurs, the vessel will immediately be required to leave the anchorage.
11. Any vessel anchoring in contravention to these rules, or in neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, will be required to depart the Richardson's Bay anchorage immediately and may be subject to citation and immediate cancellation of this permit.
12. The permittee shall be liable for any loss or damage to person or property caused by or on behalf of permittee. Furthermore, the permittee agrees to be responsible to the RBRA and to pay for any or all loss or damages to piers, floats, or other public or private facilities caused by permittee, his or her agents, and/or employees whether caused by negligence or not, and further to defend and hold the RBRA, its agents and employees, harmless for any of the foregoing. This indemnification shall survive the expiration or termination of this agreement.
13. It is expressly agreed that the RBRA shall not be liable for loss or damage to any property left or stored by permittee or any other person in or upon the vessel or boat in RBRA/public waters or bay bottom, and permittee waives any and all claims for such loss or damage against the RBRA and agrees to hold the RBRA harmless from and against any such claims.
